

Summary of Changes Since Vatican II:
A Revolution in the Church?
Plus Companion Article: "Vatican II and its Fruits"
(Catholic Controversy Series)

MyCatholicSource.com Article Reprint

+ NOW AVAILABLE IN PAPERBACK & E-BOOK FORMATS! +

"All in all, it is quite clear that much has been lost since the Second Vatican Council. It used to be that Catholics were united in belief and worship, they could go anywhere in the world and feel at home at Mass, prelates were orthodox, priests weren't afraid to talk about sin and hell and they didn't experiment with the liturgy, the Blessed Sacrament was treated with great reverence, our Blessed Mother was revered, Catholics obeyed the priests, bishops and the pope, teachers were orthodox, books with imprimaturs were 'safe', most Catholics knew and practiced their faith, lay persons didn't try to usurp priestly duties, dissenters were punished, the sense of sin was clear, people believed in the devil and knew that 'the whole world is under the power of the evil one' (1 Jn. 5:19), priests were available, Mass - a solemn sacrifice - was focused on God and was not an occasion for socializing, self-affirmation, or entertainment, Masses were reverent, not manipulated, and kneeling & genuflection for our Lord was required, parishioners were well-dressed, modest, and had manners, all was orderly and respectful, fear of the Lord was fostered and pleasing God was paramount, Catholics rejected Protestant errors, heresy was anathematized, churches were beautiful, tabernacles were prominent. A Catholic Mass was uplifting and was distinctly different from Protestant services. The Church was not worldly. She was known to be divine and not subject to change to suit the 'majority'." (Vatican II and its Fruits)

+ + +

If you love the Church, you won't want to miss this 'enlightening, fact-filled compendium' of changes in the Church since the Second Vatican Council. These MyCatholicSource.com article reprints contain...

* A brief summary of approximately 200 changes in the Church since Vatican II

* Close to 100 'fruits of Vatican II'

* Well over 50 links for more information

Includes...

* What Has Changed?

* What Hasn't Changed?

* Is it a 'Revolution'?

* Have the Changes Been Good?

* Does God Desire the Changes?

* Isn't the Church Allowed to Change?

Even popes have admitted a 'crisis' in the Church has occurred since the Second Vatican Council, yet we are also told that things are "better since the Council." However, facts don't lie.

Whether you're a 'newbie' or a seasoned Vatican II observer, you won't want to miss this 'informative & handy' reference publication.

Get your copy today. And purchase an extra copy to share!

To download/purchase, or for more information, use this link:
<http://www.MyCatholicSource.com/BuyV2Book>

Summary of Changes Since Vatican II:
A Revolution in the Church?
Plus Companion Article: "Vatican II and its Fruits"
(Catholic Controversy Series)

MyCatholicSource.com Article Reprint

+ NOW AVAILABLE IN PAPERBACK & E-BOOK FORMATS! +

"All in all, it is quite clear that much has been lost since the Second Vatican Council. It used to be that Catholics were united in belief and worship, they could go anywhere in the world and feel at home at Mass, prelates were orthodox, priests weren't afraid to talk about sin and hell and they didn't experiment with the liturgy, the Blessed Sacrament was treated with great reverence, our Blessed Mother was revered, Catholics obeyed the priests, bishops and the pope, teachers were orthodox, books with imprimaturs were 'safe', most Catholics knew and practiced their faith, lay persons didn't try to usurp priestly duties, dissenters were punished, the sense of sin was clear, people believed in the devil and knew that 'the whole world is under the power of the evil one' (1 Jn. 5:19), priests were available, Mass - a solemn sacrifice - was focused on God and was not an occasion for socializing, self-affirmation, or entertainment, Masses were reverent, not manipulated, and kneeling & genuflection for our Lord was required, parishioners were well-dressed, modest, and had manners, all was orderly and respectful, fear of the Lord was fostered and pleasing God was paramount, Catholics rejected Protestant errors, heresy was anathematized, churches were beautiful, tabernacles were prominent. A Catholic Mass was uplifting and was distinctly different from Protestant services. The Church was not worldly. She was known to be divine and not subject to change to suit the 'majority'." (Vatican II and its Fruits)

+ + +

If you love the Church, you won't want to miss this 'enlightening, fact-filled compendium' of changes in the Church since the Second Vatican Council. These MyCatholicSource.com article reprints contain...

* A brief summary of approximately 200 changes in the Church since Vatican II

* Close to 100 'fruits of Vatican II'

* Well over 50 links for more information

Includes...

* What Has Changed?

* What Hasn't Changed?

* Is it a 'Revolution'?

* Have the Changes Been Good?

* Does God Desire the Changes?

* Isn't the Church Allowed to Change?

Even popes have admitted a 'crisis' in the Church has occurred since the Second Vatican Council, yet we are also told that things are "better since the Council." However, facts don't lie.

Whether you're a 'newbie' or a seasoned Vatican II observer, you won't want to miss this 'informative & handy' reference publication.

Get your copy today. And purchase an extra copy to share!

To download/purchase, or for more information, use this link:
<http://www.MyCatholicSource.com/BuyV2Book>