

St. Paul, as inspired by the Holy Spirit,
in Ti. 3:10-11:

"After a first and second warning, break off contact with a heretic, realizing that such a person is perverted and sinful and stands self-condemned."

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. (HEB. 13:8)

St. John, as inspired by the Holy Spirit, in 2 Jn. 1:10-11 (emphasis added):

"If anyone comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him in your house or even greet him; for whoever greets him shares in his evil works."

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. (HEB. 13:8)

"Pan-Christians who strive for the union of the churches would appear to pursue the noblest of ideals in promoting charity among all Christians. But how should charity tend to the detriment of the faith? Everyone knows that John himself, the Apostle of love, who seems in his Gospel to have revealed the secrets of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and who never ceased to impress upon the memory of his disciples the new commandment 'to love one another', nevertheless strictly forbade any intercourse with those who professed a mutilated and corrupt form of Christ's teaching: 'If any man comes to you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into the house, nor say to him, God speed you.' (2 John 1:10)" (Pope Pius XI, "Mortalium Animos", 1928 A.D.)
